This 2017 Isuzu Elf TRG-NPR85AN freezer truck is a compact yet capable solution for businesses requiring reliable refrigerated transportation in urban environments. Powered by the efficient 4JJ1 diesel engine with 2,990cc capacity and equipped with a convenient automatic transmission, this truck offers excellent maneuverability and ease of operation for city deliveries and tight access routes. The automatic transmission is particularly beneficial for drivers navigating busy urban areas with frequent stops. Built for efficient cold chain operations, this Elf features a 2.9-ton payload capacity and includes a practical side access door (service door) for quick cargo access during multi-stop delivery routes without compromising temperature control. The vehicle is in good running condition with genuine mileage records and comes well-equipped with air conditioning, airbag, ABS braking system, power steering, power windows, and double batteries for reliable daily operation. This compact freezer truck is ideal for restaurants, catering services, small-scale food distributors, and businesses requiring nimble yet dependable refrigerated transport.
